Goodlands 4-H Variety Club Report

By: Ainslee McGregor, Club News Report

On October 26, 2018, the Goodlands 4-H Variety Club had a reorganizational meeting in the Deloraine United Church basement. There are 32 members in the club this year and 14 are new to 4-H. We have members from Goodlands, Waskada, Deloraine and Melita. The main Club Executive was elected as follows: President: George Meggison, Vice-President: Eli Janz, Secretary: Jillia Meggison, Treasurer: Ethan Radcliffe. After the meeting everyone enjoyed hotdogs, chips, cookies and popcorn squares. Some people went through the Haunted House and checked out the Pumpkin Walk for a fun Halloween activity.

On November 30, we had a club meeting at the Waskada rink. Before the meeting we had a few games of curling and after the meeting we had a delicious pizza supper and lemonade. The remaining club positions were determined as follows: Media Watch: Abi Wilkinson, Attendance Recorder: Sarah Meggison, News Reporter: Ainslee McGregor and Hudson Bell, Photographers: Bristol Andries, Mason Johannesen, Rylee Kehler, Maddox Menkema, Merrik Menkema, Seoul Tilokani, Eve Campbell, Ravi Tilokani.

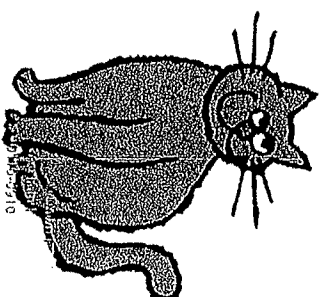

On December 1, it was the Southwest 4-H Sleepover event in Brandon at the YMCA. Lots of members and parents/leaders from our club went. We went swimming, we had a cycle fit class, we got to use the exercise equipment, we made Worms in Dirt, we had a pizza snack, we watched movies and some people stayed up all night. And some people got a bit of sleep on the gym floor.

Some animal conscious members of the community are trying to establish a TNR (Trap Neuter and Release) program in Waskada to control the feral cat population. Animals will be humanely captured and either spayed or neutered in conjunction with a local veterinarian. Although the rate for the services will be discounted funds are still required to offset medications and drugs. Keeping the feline population in check will be beneficial to not only the community members but the cats themselves. If you have $20 (or any amount) to spare for this initiative, please drop by the municipal office and leave your contribution.
