Samaritan's Purse Shoebox Collection: Have packed shoeboxes at the church on the night of our Foodgrains Bank auction, or at the latest, by Sunday, November 17th. Thanks for supporting!

November's Missions in Focus: This month we are highlighting the mission work of Canadian Food Grains Bank, whom FCC financially supports through our annual auction in November. Canadian Foodgrains Bank works to end global hunger by: supporting international programs to meet immediate food needs, reduce malnutrition, and achieve sustainable food security. Canadian Foodgrains Bank is very respected and supported by the Canadian government and its programs are undertaken with financial support from our federal government. Jim Cornelius, Executive Director of the Mission, writes: "I pray that God may enliven and prosper this continuing work until all are able to sit around the great banquet table enjoying good food and the fellowship of each others' company."

Join us for our Annual Auction

Thursday, November 14th at Fellowship Community Church Supper Served from 5:30 - 7 PM

(free will offering going to Canadian Foodgrains Bank)

Auction Begins @ 7 PM

(All auction procedes donated to Foodgrains Bank)

Bruce William Robinson

February 5, 1939 – October 23, 2019

ROBINSON, Bruce William

Bruce Robinson passed away peacefully at the Claresholm General Hospital on October 23, 2019 at the age of 80 years.

He is survived by his daughters, Shannon (Troy) and Sheila (Darren), brother Lloyd, and nieces and nephews including Patti Riley (Henry), Kenny Robinson (Bonnie), Bruce Robinson (Cheryl), Brian Robinson (Sheri Lee), Steve Robinson (Donna), Tom Robinson (Shelley) as well as numerous cousins.

Bruce is predeceased by his wife Darlene, brother Elgin, sister Greta, and parents Viola and Clarence Robinson.

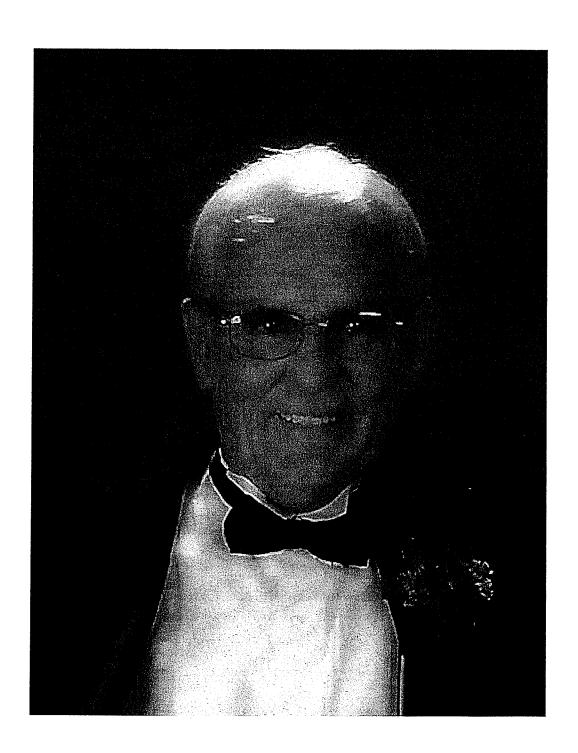

Bruce, also known as "Boogie" to his close friends and family when growing up in Waskada, Manitoba moved to Alberta when he was a young man. He met and married Darlene after suffering a serious neck injury. Darlene was his nurse, and it was love at first sight. They married and settled in Claresholm, Alberta where they completed their family with the addition of two daughters – Shannon and Sheila.

Bruce was a teacher by profession at the Willow Creek Composite High School for twenty years (1972-1992) where he shared his love of auto mechanics by teaching most of the young men at that time the tools of the trade. Bruce also loved horses and horsemanship. He participated in many roping tournaments across Alberta and took great joy in his time in the saddle and riding on his acreage. Later on, Bruce took up golf with Darlene, and there were many fantastic days spent on the course at The Bridges in Claresholm. Bruce made many friends in Claresholm and area and will be very sadly missed, especially by his coffee groups at Tim Horton's, and the neighbours that took such care of him in town.

A Celebration of Bruce's Life will be held at WILLOW CREEK FUNERAL HOME – 4079 1st Street W, Claresholm, Alberta on Tuesday, October 29, 2019 at 11:00 A.M. with Pastor Donna Alm Officiating.

In lieu of cards and flowers, all donations can be made to The Claresholm & District Health Foundation (Palliative Care) – Box 2638 – Claresholm, Alberta, TOL 0TO

Arrangements entrusted to Willow Creek Funeral Home, Claresholm. Tel: 403-625-3212. Condolences may be forwarded to the family at www.willowcreekfuneralhome.com
